DC LIVING LAB

2024

DC Living Labs is an international student exchange program on creativity and innovation, powered by the Districts of Creativity Network. DC Living Labs offers the opportunity to students from all the Districts of Creativity (DC) to work in an international team to address challenges within the Creative and Cultural industries.

This year, the program will have a hybrid format, combining a 5-day online boot camp as well as participation, an in-person workshop and presentations during the Creativity World Forum. The DC Living Lab is powered by the DC Network and it is held within the annual Creativity World Forum (CWF). The 2024 edition will be organized by the Basque Country Creativity District.

Please fill, sign and return the completed form to your District of Creativity representative at latest on the 18th of February, 2024
